REMARKS

This submission is in full and timely response to the Office Action issued under the practice under Ex parte Quayle, as mailed August 27, 2003 for which two months was allotted for response. A petition to extend the time for this response to within the third extended month accompanies this submission. Reexamination and reconsideration leading to a Notice of Allowance is respectfully requested.

The formal matters there raised by the examiner in this Quayle action are addressed, so that this case is now believed to be in condition for allowance. In addition, the specification was reviewed and a few other minor changes made to prepare this allowable case for printing.

If further matters remain, the examiner is invited to telephone the undersigned for prompt attention to those further matters.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: August 14, 2006
